

A few days ago we had the chance to have students from 10 countries visiting Greece in the framework of the Pan European Educational Programme (PEEP).

The students were informed on the Waste2bio project implementation in Greece and they participated in science experiments related to biowaste management. We'd like to thank Mr. Neokosmidis for the interest on the Waste2bio project and wish him the best.